Pathfinder eidolon character sheet pdf free word

Eidolon character sheet. Pathfinder eidolon sheet. Pathfinder eidolon character sheet.

A more compact section for your armour and shield, rather than the nebulous "AC Items" box. Separate lists for Spells Known/in Spellbook and Spells prepared. The spell section on two-page character sheets is usually pretty awful. There are spots to write down what types of containers you are using too (Handy Haversack, Bag of Holding Type II, masterwork backpack, etc.). So I've created a special third page just for spellcasters (see below). Expanded "Money" section includes a place to record your gems and "other" treasure like jewelry and art objects. So this tool was designed for free download documents from the internet. And the whole bottom half of the page is a rather extensive mini-character sheet for your familiar, animal companion, mount, eidolon, pet, or whatever. It also comes in handy during those times when you find yourself with negative levels. I can't help with the last one, but I tried my hand at creating a better character sheet than the default pathfinder one. I made this in Word on a tiny little netbook, - not ideal circumstances - so the formatting may be a bit off. Links are at the top of the page. To view a copy of this license, visit or send a letter to Creative Commons, 444 Castro Street, Suite 900, Mountain View, California, 94041, USA. ~~~~~~~ Download the PDFs here: Advanced Character Sheet v1.0 Spellcaster and Animal Companion Sheet Read on for more info. Edit: apparently it's not best to print them off directly from the web. That's nice. Free Evolutions: Bite, Improved Natural Armor, Gills, Swim (2), and can select the mount evolution. A "Conditional Attack Modifiers" section. So there it is. Much expanded inventory section! Broken down into the stuff you have in your backpack, stuff you have in an additional container, and stuff you have, but not on you ("Sometimes possession is an abstract concept..."). Pathfinder and associated marks and logos are trademarks of Paizo Publishing, LLC, and are used under license. There is a line for "Distinguishing Characteristics," which I always thought was fun. If you do cast spells, good luck trying to write them all down in that little space. BOLD SKILLS REQUIRE RANKS IN THEM TO USE. If you don't cast spells, it is taking up room that could better be used recording your precious treasure. -your humble d20 despot We believe everything in the internet must be free. Here's the optional Spellcaster/Animal page: link Improvements: First off, it exists at all. This sacrifices "branding" for extra space to write things about, say, your character. Hey everyone, I've got an even better version of this character sheet now! You can check it out here. Here's the first page link Improvements: First of all, approximately 0% of the page is spent telling you what game you are playing. Here's the second page: link Improvements: The big one: no spells section. Given the sheer number of classes that have some kind of animal friend, it is ridiculous not to have this on your character sheet. I replaced the "Size Bonus" box in AC with "Dodge Bonus." For the most part, you either have a +1 size bonus to AC or you don't. If you've got any suggestions for improvement, feel free to leave them in the comments section. Well, no more! Now there is a handy place on the front page to put your +3d6 Sneak Attack or your +2 favoured enemy bonus on attack and damage rolls. WEAPONS AND SPECIAL ATTACKS weapon enhance attack progression damage crit/range size type ammo/notes Created by JamesTheBard (www.jamesthebard.net). I noted on a lot of my character sheets that I was scrawling bonuses from the Point Blank Shot feat, the barbarian Rage ability, and various other things in the margins. We are not responsible for the content. And a little section for spellbook pages used in case you keep track of that kind of thing. A "Temporary AC" box for all those times you have broken armour, are temporarily wearing a different suit of armour than usual (or no armour), have a changed AC due to a spell or special ability, etc. uses/day Plus there is a little section to record the total weight of your coins, an oft-overlooked aspect of dungeon-looting. We are not associated with any website in anyway. Or am I going to have to use a character sheet for the time being? I moved Spell Resistance up near Damage Reduction instead of squirreled away in a corner, and I added a section for resistances and immunities since nearly every non-core player race has one or more of those and a lot of magic items provide them. A "Notes" section with every weapon slot lets you record any helpful information you want, whether keeping track of the weapon's reach or ability to make trip or disarm maneuvers, recording unusual magical properties or special materials, or just noting its physical characteristics (e.g., "lion-head pommel w/ruby eyes"). See paizo.com/pathfinderRPG for more information on the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game. Edit 3: New character sheet! Check the top of the page. Edit 2: I've finally figured out how to host PDFs of my character sheets, so that should be more convenient for everyone involved. Or here's the download link: d20 Despot Advanced Character Sheet v3.0 But, if you prefer version 1.0, read on. A section for info about your cleric's domain, sorcerer's bloodline, wizard's school of specialization, or what-have-you. Is there a option for this that I can't find or a module? I find that most characters that wear armour don't need to know their arcane spell failure chance, as most characters that would be concerned with that don't wear armour in the first place. There is a section for "Rolled HD," which can be handy for keeping track of your hit point progression and making sure you have as much HP as you are supposed to.
